Hello My Bold & Sexy Tatt Lovers,

Thank you for your interest in our product!

Tattoo art has been around for a long time in SL. We just wanted to do something different for Role Players and Fashionistas alike. So, we have gone a bit bold in our designs to help give your image that edge.

All of our AviArt pieces are unisex and are interchangeable with other complimentary pieces. Fresh and Faded options are included. Our products are BOM only; as most meshes have been pushing in that direction. But if an applier option is needed, please let us know by dropping us a notecard at our in-world store.

We offer free updates using the redelivery option if there is a major change and we have to make adjustments to our products to fit a new mesh. Please keep in mind, all sales are final, so be sure to try the Demo at our in-world store.

Happy Accessorizing!
