
Raiden Rage / Body FX

DESCRIPTION:

Raiden Rage Body FX brings a long-awaited and unique electric effect to your avatar.

Obviously inspired by Raiden, the Elder God and protector of Earthrealm, this effect channels the legendary lightning power, making your avatar look truly electrifying.

Created within the limitations of Second Life boundaries, these effects bring a touch of godly power to your virtual presence.

To ensure a realistic appearance and the proper thickness, the bolts were generated using a special Python script that mimics real lightning strikes.

FEATURES

- Rigged Mesh:

This item is a rigged mesh, meaning it will surround and move along with your avatar, adapting to any body type seamlessly.

- Automatic Activation:

Once attached, the electricity discharge effect starts automatically in a vibrant white color, adding instant impact.

- Perfect Match:

Pair it with the Raiden Rage Eyes, sold separately, to complete the look. These eyes bring a similar electric effect, making lightning bolts appear through your eyes.

HUD

- User-Friendly HUD:

The HUD is simple yet powerful, allowing for easy customization of the effect to suit your personal style.

- Color Customization:

Choose from a specially designed 128-color palette to change the effect's color instantly, offering a wide range of shades for your needs.

- Advanced Color Input:

If the palette isn't enough, use the "LSL" button at the bottom of the HUD to enter your custom color shade.

A popup window will guide you; simply input the RGB values in the format: <1.0,0.5,1.0>.

For example, this input will tint your FX with a yellow hue.

- Toggle Switch:

Use the top toggle switch to turn the FX on or off at any time, providing full control over your appearance.

TECHNICAL DETAILS

- Permissions:

All proprietary scripts are set to No Modify.

The HUD is modifiable, allowing you to resize it if needed.
